THE CHEAPEST BOOTS AND SHOES in Washington are sold on Pennsylvania Avenue, two doors east of 10th street, and no mistake. Remember that, shoe-wearing community. If any man, woman, or child doubts the truth of the above statement, our answer to such persons is, call and you will be convinced that the declaration we have made is no mere flow of idle words, but of truth, stern matter of fact.

Having recently received a large and additional supply of goods, our stock is complete, embracing all kinds of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots, Shoes, Slippers, &c. Likewise, an extensive assortment of Men's coarse Boots and Brogans, which we offer for cash cheaper by far than the cheapest. We are both bachelors, and, as our expenses are considerable, we can afford, and will be content to sell, with the smallest profits.

A word to the wise is said to be sufficient: therefore, we will conclude by simply inviting old and young, rich and poor, bond and free, to call at Store No. 2 from 10th street, Varnum's row, Pennsylvania Avenue.

The People's obedient and thankful servants for past patronage, and candidates for future favors. MOORE & DOUGLASS.

FOR RENT.—A Brick House on 4-1-2 street, South of the Avenue, containing 6 rooms. Nov. 15— ULYSSES WARD.

PARMELE (late Dodge & Parmele) takes L. this method of announcing his return to Washington City. He can be seen as usual at his residence on Pennsylvania Avenue, between 9th and 10th streets. For the satisfaction of those unacquainted with him he would offer the following Testimonials:—

From J. Smith Dodge, Esq., of New York City. NEW YORK, November 1, 1845. In resigning my Dental office in the city of Washington to my former partner, L. Parmele, I feel pleasure in saying to my friends and acquaintances in the District, that they will find him an honest man, a good Dentist, and one who is loved and respected most by those who know him best. J. SMITH DODGE, Bond Street, N. Y.

From Isaac I. Tibbals, Esq., of Baltimore. BALTIMORE, October 27th, 1845. I take pleasure in recommending Dr. L. Parmele as possessing, in my judgment, superior skill and ability for the duties of his profession, and do so with great confidence, as my long acquaintance with him has afforded me many opportunities of witnessing the success of his operations, and my own teeth, after a lapse of several years since availing myself of his professional services, attest the correctness of my opinion. ISAAC I. TIBBALS.

From the Rev. C. W. Everest, of Connecticut. RECTORY GRACE CHURCH, Hamden, Conn., July 21, 1845. For nearly three years past I have been well acquainted with Dr. L. Parmele. During this period I have had opportunity of seeing much of his work, and have several times enjoyed the benefit of his professional services. I know him to be a superior Dentist—and can therefore most cheerfully recommend him to any who may stand in need of such aid as it is his business to render. As a gentleman, also, he is worthy of all confidence; and I doubt not he will receive at the hands of an intelligent Public that patronage to which his talents and his worth entitle him. C. W. EVEREST.

From the Hon. Noah J. Phelps, late Secretary of the State of Connecticut. MIDDLETOWN, CONN., September 27, 1845. Dr. L. Parmele resided some time in this city, following the practice of Dentistry. He is a worthy citizen, and sustains a high reputation in the line of his profession. From my knowledge of the man, his standing in society, and professional skill, I take much pleasure in recommending him to the favor and patronage of the public. NOAH A. PHELPS.

HUNT'S MERCHANTS' MAGAZINE, AND COMMERCIAL REVIEW. BY FREEMAN HUNT, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. Published monthly, at 142 Fulton street, New York—at Five Dollars per annum, in advance. The Merchants' Magazine and Commercial Review, embraces every subject connected with Commerce, Manufactures and Political Economy, as follows: Commercial Legislation; Commercial History and Geography; Mercantile Biography; Descriptive, Statistical and Historical Accounts, of the various commodities which form the subject of Mercantile transactions; Port Charges; Tariffs; Customs and Excise Regulations; Commercial Statistics of the United States and the different countries of the world, with which we have intercourse, including their Physical Character, Population, Productions, Exports, Imports, Seaports, Monies, Weights, Measures, Finance and Banking Associations, and Enterprises connected with Commerce, embracing Fisheries, Incorporated Companies, Railroads, Canals, Steamboats, Docks, Post Offices, &c.; Principles of Commerce, Finance and Banking, with Practical and Historical Details and Illustrations; Commercial Law, and Mercantile Law Reports and Decisions of Courts in the United States and Europe, including Insurance, the Partnership, Principal and Agent, Bills of Exchange, Sale, Guaranty, Bankruptcy, Shipping and Navigation, &c., and whatever else shall tend to develop the resources of the country and the world, and illustrate the various topics bearing upon Commerce and Commercial Literature.

It has been, and will continue to be, the aim of the Editor and Proprietor of the Merchants' Magazine, to avoid everything of a party, political, or sectional bias or bearing, in the conduct of the work—opening its pages to the free and fair discussion of antagonistic doctrines connected with the great interests of Commerce, Agriculture, Manufactures and the Currency.

Complete sets of the Merchants' Magazine, embracing 12 semi-annual volumes, of about 600 large octavo pages each, bringing it down to June, 1844, inclusive, may be obtained at the Publisher's Office, 142 Fulton street, New York, at the subscription price.

Publishers of newspapers in the United States, by giving this advertisement two or three insertions and remitting Two Dollars to the Proprietor, will be entitled to the Magazine for one year.
